

Hello all...

Hopefully your studying is going well. Here are the details of tomorrow's exam locations: My section 3 (10:30-noon) students will be taking the exam Leidy Lab room 10; My section 4 (noon-1:30) students are split between two rooms in Logan Hall (rooms 17 and 402)

NOTE: Only students in Clay Shonkwiler's recitation sections 237 and 238 are to report to Logan Hall rm 402 (it is a smaller room and that's all that it can accommodate), everyone else in section 4 should report to Logan Hall rm 17.

I will post this note to my website as well. Otherwise, I had a great time with you all this semester. I wish you well on the exams and in your futures. Take care.
